Abby Miller earned her M.S. in Oriental Medicine at Southwest Acupuncture College in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Since 2001, her private practice, Des Moines Acupuncture Clinic, provides lowans with the time-tested methods of Oriental medicine delivered through patient-focused health care. Miller specializes in fertility enhancement, women's health issues, chronic pain relief and the immune system. She is passionate about promoting optimum health and health care delivery provided through a network of supportive professionals. Her clinic provides integrative lifestyle choices with a functional Acupuncture approach. As a recent college graduate in 1997, Miller turned to acupuncture for her own medical challenge and the gentle, restorative technique became integral to her own healing, as well as her life's work. Today, she enjoys a reputation for patient satisfaction and annually performs approximately 3,000 treatments. For a decade she has embraced post-graduate work in her field in both the U.S. and abroad. Abby Miller routinely accepts referrals from medical doctors, including those at The Mayo Clinic and The Cleveland Clinic.
